Your Paycheck Protection Program loan was paid off on September 20, 2021.

The Small Business Administration (SBA) determined that the amount you, the borrower, requested for forgiveness ("Forgiven Amount") on your Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan was fully approved and the SBA remitted the Forgiven Amount to Bank of America.

Your PPP loan with the SBA is now paid in full (including applicable interest). This satisfies your obligations under your PPP promissory note. Your PPP promissory note has been marked 'paid in full' and canceled on our system of record. You may use this letter as evidence that your PPP promissory note has been 'paid in full'.

Please keep this letter as confirmation for your records.

Things to keep in mind

The instructions in the SBA's PPP Loan Forgiveness Application state that you, the borrower, must maintain all records related to your PPP loan. Consult the applicable PPP Loan Forgiveness Application Instructions, which can be found at the U.S. Treasury website, for a detailed list of documentation you are required to maintain.

There may be tax consequences associated with loan forgiveness. Please consult a tax professional if you have questions or want advice about any potential tax implications.

For the most up to date program rules and guidance, we encourage you to visit the U.S. Treasury website at <https://home.treasury.gov/policy-issues/cares/assistance-for-small-businesses> and the SBA website at <https://www.sba.gov/funding-programs/loans/coronavirus-relief-options/paycheck-protection-program>.
